Just another unfinished game with little to no replay value.

pros:

tutorial

easy achievements (for those in need)

cons:

very simple level design and an unreliable map,

enemies spawn usually right behind you or anywhere you wouldn't suspect them very dark nights and annoying sounds,

missing collision data for the environment (trees)

. Another misleading game, the description got nothing to do with the real game, and the only thing that sell is the easy chievos completation, and on that regard, the dev naild it, be it crap or not, the truth is he really sell his games, so i have to give him thumb up for the effort.. Let's not get it twisted: this game isn't a AAA game; this game is for having a fun time killing demons and giant spiders.

I've played a few games by this developer. They remake the same game with different enemy and weapon designs. This isn't a bad thing in my book. I buy the games on sale and play the heck out of them while watch trashy reality tv on my other monitor screen.

It's a fun time and a great way to just relax and not overthink what you're doing.

I'm a simple person: I see demons and I shoot them. It's not hard and it's a great way to spend the bit of free time that I'm able to spend playing video games.

I'll keep buying these games and playing them.. Achievement simulator.

. Achievement simulator.

Got 1017 achievements in 13 minutes.. bad game, sucks so much i could have been your mom last night. Exellent game play graphics 10/10 would play againis what i would say if i hated gaming. i dont need to explain 666???. By far the worst game by this developer. Absolute♥♥♥♥♥♥♥ I got the 10 achievements in less than 10 painful minutes and uninstalled the game instantly. I hate this. Awful. Never pay a cent for this cancer, the other similar games are much better and contain more achievements. Lags a bunch, barely works, overpowered enemies, no fun, no replayability, no benefits, no nothing except for anger.. Yeah, no. It doesn't frighten you or take you on any journey, except maybe into a spiraling depression. But you're looking at super cheap indie games on Steam for either a +1 epeen to game count or +1017 epeen to achievement total, so you're probably already there. And you should think twice about getting this, because you will hate yourself considerably more after you spend 2-3 hours playing these for achievements.

There are three themes I've noticed with all of these games.

- 1) all the guns are the same
- 2) all of the worst games in this bundle are jungle/forest themed
- 3) none of them are fun or engaging, but all of them are very annoying to listen to

Mute it and do whatever you bought this for. Just be aware that everything is stock and generic, and both hit detection and gun recoil weren't tweaked in the slightest to be more responsive. That means the headshot achievements are a pain in the♥♥♥♥♥♥to get, and that goes for ALL BUT TWO of this developer's games.. I knew I should of bought a Kit Kat candy bar instead of this game, At least I would of enjoyed it..

Save your money and buy candy bar or a nice cold soda.. Honestly, people buy this just for the cheevos. Not a game itself !. Just the worst, I hate it I really do. I would write a long description of why the game sucks but the game is so boring it took all the energy out of me.. What an insult! You put games like this on steam?!
